WHY US-ALL UNDER ONE ROOF

(Challenge of handling multiple vendors)

1 Work Culture Difference

Each vendor has its own style and working culture. Can lead to cultural conflicts

2 Direct Competition

Each vendor has its own style and working culture. Can lead to cultural conflicts

3 Unsynchronized Priorities

Each vendor is working on different tasks and the priorities are in conflict with each other. this will lead to delays or integration issues.

4 Communication Overheads

Whenever there are multiple vendors involved, there would be high communication overheads and communication gaps.
